WRITE IN PICO

Breathe our fresh air, reflect, rest, relax, and inspire yourself and write. Aldeia da Fonte, on Pico Island, the Azores, is the perfect place to be creative.

The atmosphere is warm and peaceful, the setting is idyllic: six volcanic stone houses (recently renovated) with central heating, carefully decorated for your comfort. Free High-Speed Internet and a fine dining restaurant. Outside, splendid gardens and black rock bays with crushing waves. The soundscape is filled by tunes of ocean and birds. There are no traffic jams, no stressful schedules, no noise.

Our rainy and humid weather carries the mystique of the tropics, but also the pleasantness of mild and steady temperatures all year around. Pico Mountain, in the background emanates volcanic magnetism, an omnipresent energy, steady and beautiful.

You can walk by the sea trail to the atlantic swimming pool, which overlook the ocean and the small fishing vilage Lajes do Pico in the background. Depending on the season you can also go whale and dolphin watching. You can still enjoy our sea lounge or go down to our cliff platforms and dive in the sea.

PICO EMOTIONS

"Pico is the most beautiful, the most extraordinary island in the Azores, with a beauty that only it belongs to it, with a wonderful color and a strange power of attraction, is more than an island. - Is a statue to the sky and shaped by the fire. "

R. Brandão, The Unknown Island

WEEKEND IN PICO

The air of the island of Pico is wonderful, fine and graceful. It rains and dries right away. This beautiful rock absorbs the humidity as a sponge. The ocean is ongoing and the sky just as well, with a cotton like look, and the clouds are half asleep, in tones of grey. I look at the ocean, snail crawling and white pieces shine within.

ATLANTIC SECRET

"Faial lives on memories and myths. Specially Horta. More than just a city, Horta is a feeling. Perhaps of love. Maybe even of passion. Certainly of affection. Slopping toward the sea, and an oasis of rest and relaxation in the middle of the Atlantic, Horta forms a natural amphitheater with its heart titling toward aesthetic contemplation of local people."

Vítor R. Dores, 2015

FAJÃS EXPERIENCE

Candidates to the UNESCO World Biosphere Network, in 2015, Sao Jorge Island Fajas are amazing places where time passes slowly, Nature plays out and silence meets the sea. The spectacular morphology of fajas opens you to unique experiences such as surfing the Caldeira de Santo Cristo, the Canyoning in the waterfalls and streams, dozens of hiking trails or, simply, inaccessibility and isolation.

MAGIC TRIANGLE

What magic have a volcano, a mountain and numerous fajás? What magic have three islands in the middle of the Atlantic? Why from a group of nine, these three and only these three? Are they special in some way? One horizontal, one vertical, the other part of legends and stories.

ATLANTIC NATURE WONDERS

"Flores and Corvo stand in front of each other, separated by a fifteen-mile watercourse. The high cliffs scattered villages, Monte, Fazenda, Cedros, Ponta Ruiva, between the rounded hills and the moors of the hydrangeas dividing the fields.

The coast is approaching with protrusions and blackness, and the tender green of the herbs increasingly tender, standing out from the thick mass, where the increasingly dark peaks emerge.

Sunshine falls from heavy clouds, dissolves in dust on the first piano, while the other remains smoldering. Heavier is the mass of the mountains, the clipping of the cliffs; only the water of a bright green shudder at my feet. "

GREEN EXPLOSION

"Always misty and cool, wet, like that voluptuous hill in the background, it is a landscape, hidden and revealing, a feminine landscape at the moment when it is undressed with modesty. The rain is light, the wet mists are nothing more than dew and when it falls (falls many times), it is in spurts that come from above a whiteness, on the muffled heat."

(Unknown Islands, Raúl Brandão)
